

Bill of Rights Scenarios

Directions: The following scenarios, whether real or imagined, has either already been ruled on by the United States Supreme Court or could potentially be in the future. For each of the scenarios please list the amendment (and the specific part of the amendment) which would apply (Examples: 1st amendment-freedom of religion, or 8th amendment-protection from excessive bail)

1. The police seized counterfeit money from Liddy's house but the search warrant only mentioned burglary tools.
2. Gabe realized he had no alibi, so he decided not to testify in his own defense.
3. President Obama asked Vinny if a platoon of Marines could live at his mansion, but he said "Nah, bro."
4. Because Mr. Terry and his companions were acting suspiciously in front of a store, the police detective frisked the men.
5. Julia wrote a letter to her Congressman asking that a law be passed declaring June 5th National Justin Bieber Day.
6. Edwards and the other protesters marched against segregation in South Carolina.
7. Luckily, Marlana's family is wealthy enough to be able to afford the best attorney for her trial.
8. The Peabody police bugged Chris and Jon's phones because the police suspected they were dealing Skittles, Snickers, and Kit Kats to Higgins students.
9. Dylan owns every gun from Call of Duty: Advanced Warfare.
10. Several Gemini students are frisked by security before entering the Waka Flocka concert on Friday night in Boston.
11. Mady had to wait nine years for her shoplifting trial to begin.

12. Ernesto Miranda sat alone with two police officers and confessed to his crimes.
13. Ernesto Miranda sat alone with two police officers and confessed to his crimes.
14. Jack can gather witnesses to testify in his defense at his trial.
15. The city of Peabody paid a citizen fair market value for his home and land in order to tear down the home to make room for the new Brown School.
16. Cassandra decides to practice Buddhism.
17. The Maryland National Guard helped suppress riots in Baltimore in the spring of 2015.
18. The grand jury opted not to indict (or officially charge) Ashley in the point shaving scandal at the student/faculty basketball game because there was not enough evidence.
19. The FBI searched Jayna's locker looking for her cell phone.
20. Noelia did not realize that she was charged with jaywalking.
21. The state of Iowa can decide the age at which people obtains a driver's license.
22. Casey Anthony cannot be tried again for the murder of her 2 year old daughter.
23. A jury decided that the R.J. Reynolds Company, a tobacco manufacturer, must pay the United States Cancer Research Center $100,000,000.
24. Alex gets sentenced to life in prison for tagging a park bench.
25. Makayla hangs around Peabody Square passing out pamphlets urging the city to adopt a longer school day.
26. Even though it does not say anything about the right to privacy in the Constitution, Brenda argues that he has this right.