

Unlike most of the other ancient civilizations we have learned about this year, the social classes of the ancient Greece city-states _____ change as their government set up shifted from _____ to tyranny to _____.

1. Which social class about do you think had the biggest impact on this change? Why?
2. How did the geography of Greece play a role in the development of democracy?

Unlike most of the other ancient civilizations we have learned about this year, the social classes of the ancient Greece city-states did change as their government set up shifted from Oligarchy to tyranny to democracy. What social class about do you think had the biggest impact on this change? Why?